Closer Look

Have you ever moved away from somewhere you have lived for a long time, leaving everything that is familiar to you? It is a hard thing, is it not? This is like what the person in our story had to go through. Abram was a man who lived in Ur. God called Abram and told him to leave his country and go to a better place that God would show him. God led Abram to Canaan. God told Abram he would give Canaan to Abram's descendants.

God promised Abram that He will bless him and give him a big family. Abram would leave a great legacy, and the whole world would be blessed because of him. He, at this time, was seventy-five years old. Even though this was sudden, Abram trusted in God and obeyed Him. Abram trusted God enough to leave everything behind and go to an unknown land. So, he set off for Canaan with his wife, Sarai, and his nephew, Lot. They arrived in Canaan. When they got there, Abram built God an altar and worshipped Him. Sometimes it is hard to leave places or things that are comfortable to us, but God always has a good plan for us. He will always keep His promises.
