

Focus Verse "Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you." – Luke 6:27

Bible Story

The Lord said to his angels, "Should I hide what I am going to do from Abraham?" Abraham overheard this and was curious. What was going to happen? So God told Abraham his plans about Sodom. God saw that Sodom and Gomorrah were very sinful cities. The people were wicked and rebellious against God. God was not going to let them get away with their sin, so he planned on destroying them. Abraham was not happy with God's choice, because his nephew, Lot, lived in Sodom. Abraham did not want Lot to die, so he begged God to spare the righteous people of the city. The righteous people did not deserve to be punished. He asked God if He would spare the city if there were fifty righteous people. God said yes. Then Abraham asked the same for forty-five, then thirty, then twenty, and lastly, ten. God gave Abraham what he asked for. Abraham was comfortable going to God to ask for something. If what we ask for is in line with God's will, we should be confident to ask. We can learn from Abraham to pray on behalf of others.
