If you do the header correctly, it could correct the issues you could not fix when screen size changes. Compare the screenshots below of my website and one of the website I gave you in previous slide. They are completely different: my website looks very disgusting and terrible, but the other is perfect, even when screen size changes. I want something like this please!!!!!!!!!!!!

 LOUNGE LIZARD

BRANDING

Introducing the Lounge Lizard BrandTenders. Serving up brand mojo since 1998.

Branding has never been more expansive, adventurous and agile than it is today

Its touch-points are constantly spilling over into new ways to engage with your audience. Nowadays, a brand voice can literally mean a brand voice (we're talking to you Siri and Alexa). Your once sacred, brand guideline protected logo can now shapeshift into a new wordmark
